See you all next year!

'Silver Moon' (Age guidance 4+) FRIDAY 27th NOVEMBER

An enchanting masked Christmas story for children and families...tells the story of two very different children; a little polish girl, Helda and a rich little boy, Jurgen, whose adventures together break down class barriers on Christmas Eve.

Helda is cold and alone.

She may be poor, but her imagination is filled with her grandfathers's folk tales taught to her through the enchanting voice of the cello. Jurgen is surrounded by beautifully wrapped presents but needs a friend to help make his everyday magical.

Once he has invited Helda to warm herself by the fire, she takes him on a journey of creation and fantasy. When the clock strikes midnight and the silver moon is high in the air, they will never be the same again.

A magical and touching story, Jurgen learns that friendship cannot be bought and that imagination is the dearest thing to us.

Nativity! (2009) SUNDAY 13th DECEMBER

The Film Review rates this film as one of the top 10 British Christmas Films:

This British comedy is full of laughs, childish humour and festive fun. Directed by Debbie Isitt, it tells the entertaining story of how Mr Maddens (an underachieving primary school teacher) suddenly gets the idea to produce the best school nativity ever, and for the first time, to beat their snobby private school rivals. Mr Maddens - played by Love Actually's Martin Freeman - hopes his nativity will be picked up by a Hollywood producer, who is played by Scottish actress Ashley Jensen (Arthur Christmas).

Nativity! is showing at Lumsden Hall on Sunday 13th December
MATINEE with mince pies & mulled wine

The Lumsden Community Lunch Club met on 14th October and prepared a delicious pasta bake with broccoli and cheese and fresh salad, followed by summer fruit crumble and custard! They were also entertained by the organiser's two girls, Abby on the pipes and Millie playing fiddle. Thanks to Chris Wright, the facilitator, and the musicians.

Next meet is on Wednesday, 11th November - 10.30am for 11am, when guests will be cooking vegetarian lasagne and a surprise pudding!

Hope to see you there... new members especially!
